Footnotes

- 1) Fish, cephalopods and crustaceans are not animals under the Animal Welfare Act 2002.
- 2) Returns for schools and colleges cover scientific purposes for – 1 Observational studies of animals involving no direct contact by students; 2 Basic handling, feeding and care of animals. No breeding (except fish); 3 Minor conscious disruption to animal's condition or behaviour; 4 Normal animal husbandry procedures with recovery. Note: surgical, invasive and other harmful procedures other than normal animal husbandry procedures must not be carried out in schools or colleges; and 5 Activities requiring the death of the animal.
